11am Sat. Aug. 15th, 2015
in The Fireside Room of
The Delta Calgary South

Every good story needs a proper launch, so at the When Words Collide Festival, author Tim Reynolds will discuss the unique origins of one of the most unusual Urban Fantasy novels you will ever read.

He will also get down and dirty and discuss the role of faith in the story and how much of the hero's cynical opinion of religion is his own.

Discussion is invited and encouraged!

(copies of The Broken Shield will be available for purchase, but there will be no sales pressure.)

Dead Dog Party

The festival is over, but the party has just begun! Drop in for your last chance to socialize with other attendees and many of the volunteers who have worked during the weekend.
Sunday evening 7-11 PM
Boomtown Pub

*The Dead Dog party originated as a winding down party after the festival is over. A chance for last farewells before heading home.

Filk Social

Whether you play guitar or not, bring your filk book and sing a few songs.
Or just come to listen.
Sunday evening 7-11 PM
Boomtown Pub

*Filk originated as a misspelling of folk, and has come to (mostly) represent folks songs with lyrics rewritten to pay homage to speculative literature.
