GoIndieNow Live Action Screenwriting Contest – Atrium Friday 1 PM

We are requesting advance sign-up so Joe can plan appropriately for the number of contestants. You do not need to be a screenwriter to enter. This event is a fun way to introduce writers to the art of screenwriting.

Round 1: Contestants are given a log line, a character name, a genre, a plot point, and 15 minutes to write 2-5 pages.

Round 2: Remaining contestants are given a new log line, a new plot point, a line of dialogue that must be included, and 10 minutes to write.

Round 3: Finalists are given coverage notes that include a monkey wrench of a change and are given 15 minutes to rewrite the 2 scenes.

Winner will be interviewed by Joe Compton about the experience on his Go Indie Now! Podcast on Friday evening.

Note: Please bring pen and paper to this event so Joe can review your scenes.

Note: Unlike at many writers conference, these sessions are offered by the editors and agents at no extra charge. Please respect their time and generosity by properly preparing for your session.

Saturday Night Readings

Saturday Night Readings will take place from 7-10 PM. These are Rapid Readings where each author has 10 minutes, allowing 18 authors to read. Please do not read beyond your timeslot as that will delay all readings after you.
