

When Words Collide wishes to thank everyone who attended and participated in our BBQ this year. Thanks to you we raised close to $1,000 towards our next year's event. A big thank you to those who donated books and other items for the raffle. And a special thank you to Edge Press who donated a 'skip the slush pile' card, allowing the winner of that item - Anna Bortolotto - to submit a manuscript directly to publisher Brian Hades for consideration and feedback, skipping the slush pile and associated slush readers.

Now the news.

Open Planning Committee Positions

We want to thank everyone who came to our first committee meeting. Our past event was discussed as well as ways we can improve the experience for you in future festivals. We also filled many committee position but do have a few spaces open. If you wish to volunteer, let us know, we'd be glad to use and abuse you.

Registration

On line registration is up and ready for you. You will be happy to know we are keeping the rates the same as last year. Get your membership today!

Programming

We received many great programming ideas in our feedback forms but are always looking for more. If you have an idea, or wish to participate in our programming, let us know. It is our diverse panellists that makes our event great

Announcements and Special Events

CARWA is having an industry workshop September 29, Angie James, Executive Editor from Carina Press and Liz Pelletier, Executive Editor from Entangled Publishing will be joining us. http://www.calgaryrwa.com/fall_workshop.html

We know you have exciting things happening so, if you have an announcement or special event you'd like us to share with our group let us know, we'll be glad to add it to our monthly News and Notes. The next issue will go out approximately October 17.
